

FANCY A CUPPA?

Do you feel a sense of belonging?

Would you like to share your thoughts and experiences over a cuppa or two?

I am an artist doing research for a new performance project about experiences of belonging. I am looking for people to help me test out my ideas, to visit me to share a welcome drink and their thoughts.

My aim is to create a “choreographic documentary” about people’s experiences. We will work with simple tasks inspired by our personal traditions of hospitality or welcome. I will be using a video camera to record our exchanges, as the final aim of the project is to create a performance to camera, which will be streamed to the web.

I will be based at the Marlborough Theatre, Brighton between 14 and 25 August. If you have 30-40 mins to spare and would like to take part, please come along!
